WEEK SEVEN

What It's About:
 This story is about a zookeeper who is great friends with all of the animals and takes the time out of his day to do what they like with them. One day, he is too sick to go to work and the animals decide to come and visit him.

Why It's Important: This sweet story shows how kind actions towards others are repaid. The animals all take care of Amos when he needs a friend, which shows children how important continual kindness towards others is.

1. What did you think when the animals came to visit Amos at home?
2. What activities would you have done with animals if you were Amos?
3. Have you ever had to stay home from school when you were sick? Was your experience like Amos' experience?
4. What is your favorite activity to do during the day?

Teach children kindness and compassion for others by making Get Well and Feel Better cards for someone that is sick.

*Count the animals that are seen on each page. There are many hidden animals within the pictures.

Make your own story timeline and let your children re-tell the story!

*Discuss the methods Amos would have to use to take care of each animal at the zoo. Discuss how people take care of each other in times of need.
